Reports: Griffith Police Department

Chief Mance read the monthly report for April 2018

Reported crime in April 2018 rose by 15% compared to April 2017. When compared to overall reported crime for April 2018 to the average number of crimes reported during the past five April's, crime fell 27 percent.

Griffith Fire Department

Deputy Chief Don Hill read the April monthly report.

Total calls for April 2018 were down 39 percent compared to March 2018 and compared to April 2017 calls were down 34 percent. With the change to the new reporting system there will be an increase in fire calls by the number because of classification changes. This does not truly reflect an increase in actual calls.

VEST

Chief Mance read the report for April 2018.
